THE BEAUTY OF CHARITY. Father Gloyd Discusses It at St.

Patrick's Church. Rev. Pather Gloyd preached an instructive sermon yesterday at 11 o'ctock mass at St. Patrick's Church. The subject was the "Multiplication of the Loaves," and the discourse was an illustration of the beauty of charity, as taught by the example of Christ.

Christian beneficence, Father Gloyd said, is a strict obligation, and without charity to our fellow-beings we cannot expect or hope for salvation. In the strict sen the word, we own nothing here on earth, all belongs to God. He is sole proprietor. He called us and all things else into exist ence, and only permits us to use them in order that we may aid our fellow-men.
